☀ 6 DAYS 🌙 5 NIGHTS

DAY 1 – MUTIS ROUTE “Rediscovering the Royal Botanical Expedition”

- Pick-up at El Dorado International Airport, Bogotá, during the early hours – destination Armero, Tolima – travel time approximately 3.5 hours.
- Arrival in ARMERO: a guided visit that recalls the magnitude of the tragedy in this municipality of Tolima, now transformed into a sacred memorial site and Park of Life. Iconic landmarks such as the Obelisk of Life, the Bank of Colombia Vault, the John Paul II Memorial Pavilion, the Killer Stone, and the Mausoleum of Police Officers evoke remembrance and reflection through stories and anecdotes.
- Lunch.
- Departure to Falan – Ciudad Perdida de Falan Natural Reserve, a magical place rich in nature, history, and adventure.
- The LOST CITY OF FALAN: 17th-century ruins of a Spanish citadel built next to the Royal Mines of Santa Ana, renowned for their gold and silver and once owned by the King of Spain. After independence, they were granted in concession to the British by order of Simón Bolívar.
- Within the reserve, we will take a guided walk to explore the ruins and the natural forest, where we may observe local flora and fauna and natural attractions such as natural pools and waterfalls, as well as a variety of amphibians, lizards, snakes, and migratory birds.
- Expedition in Mariquita: the fruit capital of Colombia, where we will visit the following attractions: Casa de los Pintores, Diocesan Sanctuary of La Ermita, House of the Second Botanical Expedition, House of Gonzalo Jiménez de Quesada, San Sebastián Cathedral, Botanical and Astronomical Observatory, Casa del Solar del Rey, and the Municipal Forest.
- Transfer to Hotel Boutique Casa Lumaka, in Mariquita, or similar.
- Dinner at the hotel and overnight rest.
